

Webinar with Bonnie Ives Marden
"Courage to Ask: What Your Donors Are Waiting for You to Say"
Tuesday, September 28, 10:00 am-Zoom

The United Methodist Foundation of Michigan welcomes Bonnie Marden, author of Church Finances for Missional Leaders. Those who register will receive a Zoom link. Clergy and laity in the Michigan area have expressed an interest in knowing more about creating a culture of generosity in their local churches. This one-hour webinar will offer insights into encouraging generosity.

Since 1994, Bonnie has specialized in financial stewardship, conflict/mediation and change management. She currently empowers leaders seeking growth and success in their ministry setting. Bonnie offers training in congregational stewardship including communications, donor cultivation and audit/review processes so that financial integrity and accountability inspires generosity.

Bonnie grew up in United Methodist churches in Maine and now works nationally on leadership and stewardship projects. In 2019, GBHEM published Church Finances for the Missional Leaders: Best Practices for Faithful Stewardship. Bonnie Marden brings a compelling communication style, years of experience in stewardship leadership and passion for the church's mission to her webinars.

Register here. If you have any questions please contact Rev. Sherry Parker-Lewis, Sr. Director of Church Relations.

Helping Faithful People Live Generous Lives for over 90 Years

When it comes to growth, look to us for a full range of financial stewardship, value-aligned investments, planned gifts, and leadership development.

1.888.451.1929

Website
Vinemo Channel