

Financial Ethics for Pastoral Leaders

Discipleship Ministries Online Course*

with Discussion Cohort

led by Rev. Dr. Sherry Parker-Lewis

The United Methodist Foundation of Michigan invites clergy and laity to participate in a 6-session course in Financial Ethics

Time: 10:00 am – 11:30 am

Tuesdays: Feb 18, Mar 11, Mar 25, Apr 8, Apr 29, May 13

“Exploration of financial ethics strengthens the financial practices of churches”

Cohort Topics Include:

- Pastors’ Role and Responsibilities in Church Finance
- Financial Safeguards, Controls and Boundaries
- Maintaining Trust and Transparency
- Financial Documentation Practices
- Connectional Accountability
- Addressing Financial Misconduct

To Register for Cohort and Receive Directions for Free Online Course

Registration: <https://forms.gle/Z39sQJcFQqzwev3k6>

Questions: Contact Sherry Parker-Lewis (sherry@umfmichigan.org)

* This online course was written by Rev. Ken Sloane, Dir. of Stewardship for Discipleship Ministries and can be taken without participation in the cohort.

 The Cohort Sessions offer reflection on each lesson. Discussion is intended to enhance learning.